The source also furnished photographic copies of lists of names which appear to represent subscribers to some sort of publication. It is to be noted that some of the names on these lists contained the letter 'S' along side the date on the plate. The following appeared on these lists.

It is to be noted that the aforementioned letter refers to lists of National Guardian subscribers which were sent to [redacted] in October of "52". This [redacted] states that those plates which contain an "S" after the date are considered "Guardian Sparks."

Photographic copies of the National Guardian letter are being placed in [redacted]
